Introductory Theme:
Compliments of Robert L. Casper
Words by Ken Hensley

My
imagination
flies to some other
sunny skies

Where I
felt so good
and everything
was done and my time was my own and my heart felt so free.

I don't mind a little rain,
but it doesn't seem the same,
when the clouds shut out
your beauty from my eyes.
There's a storm inside my head and I know it doesn't lead to a clearer day
when nobody will cry.

I
can't stand
here
alone

and I need to be free.

So bring fire and bring steel,
for you know the way I feel,
bring a silver horse to carry me
away

I'm no stranger,
I'm a friend and my pain will never end . . .

Til the world will let us live our lives as one and
our time is
our own and
our hearts
can be free.

A spirit of fighting determination characterized the 1972-1973 Hurricane basketball team. The 'Cane Cagers refused to be held down by early season setbacks. A lack of teamwork that was evident in the first few games vanished as the season progressed and by mid-season the Hurricanes had molded themselves into a powerful squad. Despite the loss of several players during the year, the 'Canes remained a strong contender in the Cavalier-Tarheel Conference.

Sparked by the offensive talents of Russell Davis, a 6'6" freshman from Raeford, N.C., the Hurricanes once again captured the Pickle Classic title at the Mount Olive tournament. Davis continued to pace the Louisburg squad throughout the year with a 20 plus scoring average. Other players that saw considerable action during the season were: Don Carter, Don Maskall, Howard Ray, Danny Davis, Dean Reavis, Buddy Morris, Mike Dement, Steve Bryant, and Steve Moskow.

For the seventh year in a row the Louisburg College cagers were coached by J. Enid Drake. Ken Gentry and Joey Moore served as trainer and manager, respectively.

IN MEMORY OF

Dr. Cortland Victor Smith
1910-1972

Joseph McDuffie Hockstim
1952-1972

Death overtakes a beautiful life
once lived,
And is feared because it is unconquered.
If Death were understood
maybe it, too,
would be beautiful.
Now we grieve . . .
A Loved One
has departed.
He may be watching now
with An everlasting smile . . .

Give Yourself a Break, Say "Pepsi Please"!

Got a thirst you just cannot beat? Let Pepsi beat it for you. An ice cold Pepsi or Mountain Dew (Which may be found in Pepsi Machines all over campus) is waiting for you. Don't delay, now's the time to say "Pepsi please."

Crunch, gobble gobble. What is it? A giant turkey? No! It's just one of the many students at Louisburg eating a snack from Tom's machines. The variety offered by Tom's Peanut Co. is sure to please any hunger pain.

The birds sing, singing sweet melodies
To the leaves of the trees Swaying in the gentle breeze.
A trickle materializes,
Oozing out of the fertile earth.
Then a stream, racing down the mountainside Pushing over the rocks and sticks
That attempt to discourage its way, Til finally it plunges over a ledge;
Its waters madly dashing themselves
Against the rocks below.
Bewildered, the water lies dormant
At the bottom of the wall of stone.
Then slowly, slowly the water flows further on,
Widening with each step it takes,
Til finally it grows so big
That waters no longer wish to stay with the whole Break off, running in directions all their own But, still sapping strength from the main body.
Further the river flows.
Pushing relentlessly forward
Through the gulleys and under bridges Until finally it joins
With the Mightiest of all waters
And that is enough;
For now it lies peaceful, serene.
Its glistening ripples, popping up
Running for a while, and then going back to sleep.
It has reached its goal
And it is satisfied.

Michael Machia

To live is not merely to breathe,
it is to act,
it is to make use
of our organs,
senses, faculties,
of all those parts
of ourselves which give us the feeling
of existence.
The man who has lived longest
is not the man who has counted the most years, but the one who has engaged life most.
